Seniors

Sorrow and Joy Go Hand-In-Hand

May 19th will always be treasured by the proud Seniors of '70. Bound together by four years of tears and laughter, the Seniors together as a class for the last time, share in the joys and sorrows of their Graduation. Reluctant to leave their past life together, yet eager for their future, they go forth to face their world as individuals.

In addition to the 11 graduating Seniors, Beverly Mousel, a former student of R.H.S., received her diploma.

It was a momentous march.

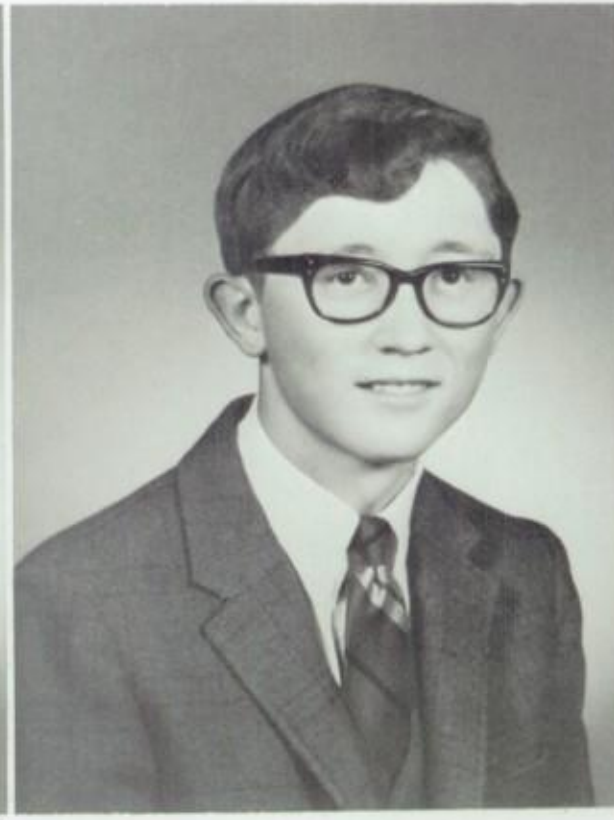

Lenny receives his diploma from his father.

Mary Ann gives a tearful farewell.

Seventeen boys went out for football to start off the '69 football season under Coaches Tim Olin and Delmer VanLengen. There were four returning letterman from last year. The team was able to defeat Campbell for their only win of the season, but they were receiving experience and playing time needed for a team. Experience and depth were the main problems in this year's team. Injuries to key players was another disaster that hit the team. Even though the record didn't turn out too well for the Cardinals, they received much necessary experience for future years.

Encouragement from the coach.

Underclassmen Meet the Challenge

FIRST FIVE: Jim Kort, Ken Parr, Randy Mohr, Dan Heuertz, Jeff Konen, Coach Gerald Hartman

After losing eight graduating lettermen and two more lettermen, Norb and Lynn by injuries, and Rodney, a promising prospect, also by football injuries, the coming season looked mighty challenging for R.H.S. Although the Cardinals were not a winning team, they did manage two victories. The first was over Campbell 46-43, and the second over Bladen in the District Tournament, 47-40. All regulars were underclassmen except for Ken Parr. This experience gained should be of great help in the coming year.

Leading scorers were Randy Mohr 248, Jeff Konen with 183, and Ken Parr with 169. Randy also was the leading rebounder with 17 per game.

Although the Cardinals were not a winning team, we should be proud of the sportsmanship and determination of the team members during 1969-70 basketball season.

At right Ken puts out 110% effort!

Patti and Bonnie match skill

The South Central Nebraska volleyball champs for 1969-70 are the Roseland Cardinals. The team started out with a heart-breaking season, losing many hard-fought games by only a couple points. Going into the Conference tournament with a 3-8 record, the girls first victory was over Holstein. Then advancing to an undefeated Trumbull squad the tenseness grew tighter, but with the backing of the fans and the spirit of the girls, the Cardinals pulled through to another victory to continue to the finals. Bladen was next to feel the sting of defeat as Roseland pushed on for the title. The game with Guide Rock was the deciding point of the tournament. By the win of two more straight sets the thrill and happiness of being Conference Champions was Roseland's to keep.

The team also participated in a 32-team tournament in Hastings, placing in the top eight. The last game was lost to the eventual champs, Wilcox.

This volleyball season will long be remembered in Roseland by the slogan that is posted in the hall "R.H.S. is Number 1."

Track 1970

Seventeen girls joined the track team this year. They participated in track meets throughout the season at Kenesaw, Bladen, G.I. Northwest and Hastings Chamber of Commerce. They placed third in the Conference Track Meet and received a first place trophy for the 880 yard relay.

Their efforts were well rewarded by their experience and the fun they had while competing.

The State Track and Field Meet held at Kearney climaxed the Cardinal Track Season. Rod Heuertz and Randy Mohr both qualified for the State Meet. After tough, tight competition, Rod placed 1st in the 100 yard dash with a winning time of 10.2, and also took 2nd in the 220. with 22.9. As a school, Roseland placed 5th out of the 51 scoring class D schools.

During the season, five school records were broken. The 880 yd. relay team, Rod Heuertz, Randy Mohr, Jeff Konen, and Danny Heuertz, broke the previous record with a 1:38.6. Rod sprinted the 100 yd. dash in a 9.9 and the 220 dash in 22.9. Jeff ran the 180 yd. low hurdles in 23.1. Randy tied the school record in high jump, jumping a 5' 11 1/4".

Active Athletes Form The "R" Club

The fight for victory began a week before school started. The fourteen returning let-termen set the pace for upcoming athletes. There were hard practices, some awfully rugged games, some definitely sore muscles, a few serious injuries, but a continuous striving for success. However these players have some memories and experiences that will always stay with them. It takes hard work, determination, and a candy bar in their back pocket to make an R Club member.

Their activities ranged from supplying refreshments for football and basketball games, to presenting the Athletic Banquet and dance. Spirit at R.H.S. will always reign high, everyone will always stick together to back their great team to the end. The Pep Club will say, "We Love You Cardinals!"

Homecoming highlights football season

Our Homecoming night of October 3 held magic and mystery for both the candidates and spectators. The tension mounted and hopes soared as three proud couples awaited the crowning amid a hushed crowd. For the winning Queen Karen and King Jeff the night will always hold special significance for a success never loses its glow, or dreams their magnetism. With happiness and hope reflected in their smiles, the couple reigns over the spirit of R.H.S.

Class Prophecy

As we look into the future years of the Seniors of the '70 class we see that Bonnie Bonifas has just won Suzy Homemaker of the year and is now in a race with Betty Crocker for the flakiest pie crust ever made.

Norb Trausch is now touring the world as a pro golfer. Each day he seems to be improving, because in the last tournament he only hit four people.

Jackie Konen is now a Drivers Education teacher at R.H.S. and is teaching her students to go around the town pump without hitting it.

Lavon Buhr is now residing at the Adams County Courthouse where she has been trying to get her drivers license, but she can't seem to keep her eyes on the road because of the cute guy she takes for a ride.

Kenny Parr is now the high point man in the NBA. He has just beat out Wilt Chamberlain after a big race for the honors.

Jane Konen is now campaigning across the United States for first woman president. And it looks like chances are slim for Spiro.

Patti Harms is now a world famous writer of wit. She also has written many joke books for adult entertainment. She only has one trouble--after she writes the jokes she has to have someone explain them to her.

Kathy Heuertz has just become a nun. She is an authority on human relations and has just published her new book entitled "Sex and the Single Nun."

Lenny Trausch is now the owner of Lenny's Latest. It is a pants making factory in which one pair of pants are turned out every week for Lenny's own personal use.

Mary Ann Hoffman is now the owner of one of the largest peanut butter factories in the world, "Huffy's Puffy Peanut Butter." She is now experimenting to find a more nuttier tasting peanut.

Rodney Heuertz has just set a record in the 100 meter dash at the Olympics and is now hunting for a room big enough to keep all his medals.

We, the Roseland Seniors of '70 of Adams County in the State of Nebraska, in a sound state of mind, reasoning, and memory, do make, publish, and declare our last will and testament.

Class Will

To the Juniors, we will our ability to gain support from surrounding towns, our books from which we have acquired so much knowledge, and the stage in the gym on which we so successfully put on our plays.

To the sophomores, we give our ability to roam about the schoolhouse during school hours, also our unending patience which always kept us out of trouble.

To the young and inexperienced freshmen who still have 540 of the most exciting days of their attendance at this school, we leave a map of the various paths we took to get to our classrooms and the office.

To the various students, we bequeath our personal traits as follows:

Lenny Trausch wills his farmer pants to Cheryl Gartner, his height to Mary Mangers, and his ability to play golf from behind a tree to Mr. Brazeale.

Kathy Heuertz wills her coordination to stay off the volleyball floor to Karen Parr, Her ability to type to Mr. Brazeale, and her gray hairs to Debbie Consbruck.

Norb Trausch wills his ability to get a date first time, every time to Jeff Konen, his thermometer to Mr. Cecrle, and his ability to jump out of fastmoving vehicles to Mary Mangers.

Patti Harms wills her ability to high jump without bending the bar to Karen Parr, my peanut butter bread to Mary Brown, and my ability to catch on to jokes to Jeff Konen.

Lavon Buhr wills her ability to drive other peoples cars to Rhonda Zubrod, and her ability to stick her foot in her mouth to Karen Parr.

Jackie Konen wills her ability to let town pumps come out and bite her to Rhonda Zubrod, her Teddy-runners to Lynn Parr, and her giggle to Randy Mohr.

Rodney Heuertz wills his gift of gab to Randy Mohr, and his wise cracks to Cheryl Gartner.

Bonnie Bonifas wills her ability to spike and to slam Mr. Brown to Mary Brown.

Kenny Parr wills his cute dimples to Mrs. Adams and his ability to play tailback to Jeff Konen.

Mary Ann Hoffman wills her love for cherry flavored drinks to Nancy, Cheryl, Debbie and Mary, her ability to get along with Mrs. Hall to Lynn Parr.

Jane Konen wills her femininity to Rhonda Zubrod, and her ability to check into the medical books to Mary Brown.

Athletic Queen Patti and King Norb

The days of our youth go flying by
No stopping though hard we try.
So once in the year, we pause to greet
A day that lingers in memory's sweep.

Earning averages of 90 percent or better were the following: Larry Shaw, grade seven; Tim Trausch, Larry Klein, Tom Mangers, grade eight. Corine Manske, Jolene Konen, and Patty Mangers, freshmen; Mary Ellis, sophomore; Rhonda Zubrod, Karen Parr, Mary Mangers, and Mary Brown, juniors; Jackie Konen and Bonnie Bonifas, seniors.

Ozarks - Here We Come

April 23rd through the 27th we shared four glorious days of Senior Sneak. We trotted through the woods on horseback, danced on a moonlit ferry, sped around the lake in boats, flew over it in seaplanes, explored the Ozark Caverns, consumed quantities of roasted wieners, and we also accidentally fell in the swimming pool. Of course, there was a lot of just plain goofing around in between. Finally, pleasantly exhausted and slightly sunburned, we boarded our bus to head home to Nebraska.

We're all sailors at heart!

Ready - Set - GO!!

What skill, what poise!??

We sing along with Joe.

Good-bye Ozarks.
